A SPIRITUAL DROP FROM OUR PASTOR

Easter Sunday

The Easter sequence is one of the most beautiful texts sung during Easter, especially on Easter Sunday. In that text you can see the love and hope that Christ brought us with his Glorious Easter. In one of the stanzas, Mary Magdalene is asked:
"Tell us, Mary, what did you see on the way?"

And she answers:

"The Tomb of Christ, who is living. The glory of Jesu's Resurrection; Bright angels attesting, The shroud and napkin resting. Yea, Christ my hope is arisen"
As we know, Mary Magdalene was forgiven and loved by Christ in a very special way, to the point that she was the first to see the Risen Jesus and to bring the proclamation to the apostles. The great sinner became a great saint. This Easter Sunday brings us much hope for all of us because despite our sins, God offers us a great opportunity to change our lives and lift them to the highest dignity. Christ, our Love and our Hope has risen to give us eternal life and to give it to us in abundance. If you think that you did not take advantage of Lent for a profound change in your life, do not worry, now comes Easter which is a time of light, light that comes to destroy our darkness to give us life. Christ comes to meet you to give you life, which means that there is hope even when we believe that all is lost.
God loves you with infinite tenderness. Happy Easter Sunday!

La secuencia de Pascua es uno de los textos más hermosos que se cantan durante la Pascua, especialmente el Domingo de Resurrección. En ese texto se nota el amor y la esperanza que nos trajo Cristo con su Pascua Gloriosa. En una de las estrofas se le pregunta a María Magdalena:

¿Qué has visto de camino María, en la mañana?

Y ella responde:

"A mi Señor glorioso, la tumba abandonada. Los ángeles testigos, sudarios y mortaja. Resucitó de veras, mi amor y mi esperanza"
Como sabemos María Magdalena fue perdonada y amada por Cristo de una manera muy especial al punto de que ella fue la primera en ver a Jesús Resucitado y llevar el anuncio a los apóstoles.

La gran pecadora se convirtió en una gran santa. Este domingo de Pascua nos trae mucha esperanza para todos porque a pesar de nuestros pecados Dios nos ofrece una gran oportunidad para cambiar nuestra vida y elevarla a la dignidad más alta. Cristo, nuestro Amor y nuestra Esperanza ha resucitado para darnos vida eterna y darnosla en abundancia. Si piensas que no aprovechaste bien la cuaresma para un cambio profundo en tu vida, no te preocupes, ahora viene la Pascua que es tiempo de luz, luz que viene a destruir nuestra oscuridad para darnos vida. Cristo viene a tu encuentro para darte vida lo cual significa que hay esperanza aún cuando creamos que todo está perdido.

Dios te ama con ternura infinita.
¡Feliz Domingo de Resurrección!

Pastor

BABY BOTTLE CAMPAIGN—MAY

The Walking with Moms in Need ministry is once again sponsoring the annual Baby Bottle campaign. Ince May is the month of Mary, it's only appropriate to run this campaign beginning Saturday, May 3rd and run the entire month.

We recognize that many local women whom face difficult times with their pregnancy, as well as providing for their children and themselves. Because of our Parish's initiative, proceeds accrued from your generous support will be split evenly between four very important organizations that assist these young women. The Women's Care Center Northeast Indiana, The Compassion Pregnancy Center Northeast Indiana, Christ Child Society, and St. Vincent de Paul Society. You can pick up and return your bottle at the crib in the gathering area of the Church before the end of May. For parishioners at St. Paul, a basket will be in the community room for the same purpose. For those who would like to volunteer, we are in need of your help distributing at the end of each Mass.

Please call Ted Pulver at 260-705-4705 or Shelley Pulver at 260-205-7649.
